

IN TOMORROWS

Scene

SUNDAY TELEGRAM

Your Good Neighbor Newspaper.

Elmira Baseball

50 YEARS ON A SHOESTRING

Andy Cohen

Packy Rogers

"Take me out to the ball game,"

Scene reporter Al Mallette does just that as he traces the past 50 years of baseball in Elmira.

The good years and the lean years. Dunn Field favorites including Lew Krause, Jack Kimball, Andy Cohen, Frankie Madura, Sam Zoldak and Barney Lutz.

The unsung heroes who worked behind the scenes come in for special mention for their untiring efforts to keep baseball in Elmira, Levi Ginsburg, Bill Lande, Art Wellington, Art Hoffman, Jim McKinnon and others. You won't want to miss this special sports report in Scene Magazine, another bonus feature of The Sunday Telegram.

More Good Reading!

DRUMS ALONG THE CHEMUNG!

What does "Drum Corps" mean to the hundreds of young people in the Twin Tiers who devote their summers to Drum Corps activities?

How do the parents feel about their children's participation, the hours of practice and the hundreds of miles traveling on the road?

How do the Corps members go about raising the $20,000 necessary to operate for just one year?

These questions and others are the subject for reporter Charlie Hughes in depth report on Twin Tier drum corps and the people associated with them.

Make the "Scene" in this weeks Sunday Telegram

Scene

SUNDAY TELEGRAM