

Out-Slicks Dessen

Andy Cohen Wins Only Game As Phils Manager

United Press International

It was short and sweet for interim Manager Andy Cohen of the Phillies, who comes down from cloud nine today and goes back to the coaching line again.

Cohen waited 30 years for a crack at a major league managing job and when he finally got it, through a strange combination of circumstances, he certainly made the most of it.

Out-slicking Charlie Dessen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning, 5-4 victory over Milwaukee Thursday night and if nothing else, Cohen can always say he "retired" as the most successful manager in Phillies' history.

A McGraw Man

In case you've never heard of Cohen, he's the same fellow John McGraw dug up to play second base for the Giants in 1924 when McGraw wanted to give New York fans their first look at a Jewish ball player. Now 55, Cohen was hired as a coach by the Phils this year and was delegated to lead the club Thursday night a few hours after Eddie Sawyer suddenly quit as manager.

Cohen knew he was simply a stop-gap until Gene Mauch, the Phillies' new pilot, could join the club from Florida. But he did a job that would have made McGraw proud.

The Braves jumped in front with three runs in the first inning when Hank Aaron slammed a two-run homer and Joe Adcock followed with a solo blast. But the Phils battled back and tied the score at 4-4.

Bobby Del Greco, who had homered earlier, walked to open the 10th and stole second. Jim Coker flied out and Cohen then sent up Ted Lepcio to hit for pitcher Don Cardwell, whose homer tied the score in the sixth. Dessen countered by bringing in Bob Giggie to relieve Juan Pizarro.

Dark Collects 2,000th

Not to be out-done, Cohen replaced Lepcio with left-handed hitting John Callison, who was purposely passed. After all that master-minding, Joe Koppe singled home the winning run. Alvin Dark of the Phils collected his 2,000th hit when he singled during a three-run sixth.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their third straight loss, 3-2; the Cubs inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the Giants, 6-5, and the Pirates crushed the

McLish Fails In 1st Start For Redlegs

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Cal McLish, a 19-game winner for Cleveland who is supposed to give Cincinnati pitching a shot in the arm this season, chalked up a bad start with his new team Thursday as Pittsburgh bombed the Reds, 13-0.

Pirate batters had a field day against Reds pitchers, battering five of them for 11 hits, six good for extra bases.

The first five Pirate safeties went for extra bases and laid the way for McLish's removal in the third inning after the Pirates stretched their lead to 5-0 in their home opener.

The Reds were unable to make any of their seven hits off route-going Vern Law pay off.

Drives In Five Runs

Robert Clemente drove in five runs with a pair of doubles, a sacrifice fly and a single, while Bill Mazeroski got a double and a homer for four runs.

Ten batters went to the plate in the fifth inning as the Pirates scored six runs on three singles, a double and three walks off reliever Brooks Lawrence. Gino Cimoli singled home two runs and Mazeroski doubled home a pair.

Law, an 18-game winner last year, allowed no walks. The only extra-base hits off him were a pair of doubles by second baseman Billy Martin.

Law In Trouble Once

Law was in trouble only once.

(More of McLISH, Pg. 7.)

(More of COHEN, Pg. 7.)