

Phils' Interim Chief 'In Orbit' After Win

By United Press International
It was short and sweet for interim Manager Andy Cohen of the Phillies, who comes down from cloud nine today and goes back to the coaching line again.

Cohen waited 30 years for a crack at a major league managing job and when he finally got it, through a strange combination of circumstances, he certainly made the most of it.

Out-slicking Charlie Dressen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning,

5-4 victory over Milwaukee last night and if nothing else, Cohen can always say he "retired" as the most successful manager in Phillies' history.

(Cohen is the brother of Syd Cohen, well known former manager of Juarez, El Paso and Bisbee-Douglas teams in the Arizona-Mexico League in the '40s and early '50s.)

In case you've never heard of Cohen, he's the same fellow John McGraw dug up to play second base for the Giants in 1924 when McGraw wanted to give New York fans their first look at a Jewish ball player. Now 55, Cohen was hired as a coach by the Phils this year and was delegated to lead the club last night a few hours after Eddie Sawyer suddenly quit as manager.

COHEN KNEW he was simply a stop-gap until Gene Mauch, the Phillies' new pilot, could join the club from Florida. But he did a job that would have made McGraw proud.

The Braves jumped in front with three runs in the first inning when Hank Aaron slammed a two-run homer and Joe Adcock followed with a solo blast. But the Phils battled back and tied the score at 4-4.

Bobby Del Greco, who had homered earlier, walked to open the 10th and stole second. Jim Coker flied out and Cohen then sent up Ted Lepcio to hit for pitcher Don Cardwell, whose homer tied the score in the sixth. Dressen countered by bringing in Bob Giggie to relieve Juan Pizarro.

NOT TO BE OUT-DONE Cohen replaced Lepcio with left-handed hitting John Callison, who was purposely passed. After all that master-minding, Joe Koppe singled home the winning run. Alvin Dark of the Phils collected his 2,000th hit when he singled during a three-run sixth.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their third straight loss, 3-2; the Cubs inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the Giants, 6-5, and the Pirates crushed the Reds, 13-0.

HURLER'S PLEA GRANTED

Geist, UA Win After Rocky Start

By LOU PAVLOVICH

Jim Geist is a better salesman, if you'll pardon the comparison, than Tommy Manville.

The University of Arizona right-hander had difficulties from the start in yesterday's game against the Big 10 Iowa Hawkeyes on the UA field. In all, there were four occasions where Coach Frank Sancet was toying with the idea of pulling the sore-armed pitcher because of the jams he got himself into—spots where Sancet ordinarily would have automatically called for a new hurler.

"Go with me," Geist asked Sancet after Iowa scored five runs

MEANWHILE, back at the ranch, the Wildcats finally zeroed in on Iowa ace Roger Rudeen. Tom Celli slapped a line drive homer over the right-center fence in the second to cut the count down to 6-1.

Then Arizona exploded in the fifth—and so did the Hawkeyes after a couple of close decisions went in the Wildcats' favor. A double rundown saw Bill Parrott sliding home. He was called safe by Umpire Augie Acuna. Iowa protested vehemently. The throw apparently was in time but Acuna explained later that the Iowa catcher was not protecting the plate fully and that Parrott slid past the unprotected side and was not tagged.

Moments later Chuck Shoemaker hoofed it around the bases for an inside-the-park homer, sliding home and again causing Iowa players to groan over the decision. Bill Barraclough fol-
