

Wildcats Outclass Miners 16-0

Arizona played a game called "Home Run Derby" against the University of Texas at El Paso Friday and by the time the contest ended, four players were tied for first place.

William Simpson began the parade in the third inning with a solo homer followed by three-run blasts by Ron Hassey, Don Zimmerman and Ken Bolek as the Wildcats outclassed UTEP 16-0 at Dudley Field.

"This is ridiculous. What we need are men to compete against Arizona. These guys (Arizona) knew how to play before they got to Arizona. They're a better class of kids," said Andy Cohen after his Miners absorbed their 10th straight defeat while dropping their WAC record to 1-9. Overall, UTEP stands at 7-16.

"It looks like I didn't do a good job of assembling this team," added Cohen. "It's not my kids' fault for the way we're playing this year. I'm responsible. They do the best job they can."

The highlight of the game for the Miners came in the first inning when starter Jeff Hogan retired the nation's third-ranked Wildcats in order. After the second inning, the score remained tied and then the fireworks exploded in broad daylight.

By the time Arizona Coach Jerry Kindall threw in his second-stringers, the worn-out Miners had witnessed some 20 Wildcat hits, seven which had gone for extra bases.

"Look at these kids," barked Cohen. "They look like old veterans out there. Did you see how that outfield moved around? How about the time Art Bravo hit the ball down the right field line and the right-fielder cut it off and threw a strike to second, preventing a double? All those things make the difference in Arizona and UTEP."

All the Miners could muster off Arizona starter Craig Giola, now 11-3 for the year, and reliever Perry Armstrong were four singles and a two-out double by Steve Dau to centerfield in the ninth inning.

No UTEP runner reached third base as Arizona improved its Western Athletic Conference record to 7-3 to go along with a 39-13 overall record.

The two teams meet in a doubleheader beginning at 11 a.m. Saturday at Dudley Field. Freshman Jerry Walker and junior Dave Jannusch will be the starters for UTEP. Steve Powers (6-3) and Bob Chaulk (8-1) are scheduled to pitch for Arizona.
