

CURRY CONNECTS—Rookie outfielder Tony Curry is greeted at home plate in third inning yesterday after hitting the second of two homers which led the Phils to a 5-2 win over the Reds. Tony Taylor, right, scored ahead of him. John Callison (No. 6) awaits his turn at bat while Reds' catcher Ed Bailey and Umpire Bill Jackowski look on.

'T WAS THIS WAY, UMP—Phils' Manager Gene Mauch argues with Umpire Jackowski after latter called interference on Pitcher Jack Meyer in third inning. With Joe Koppe on first, Meyer bunted in front of plate and was ruled out for interfering with Catcher Bailey's attempt to field the ball. Phillie Coach Andy Cohen listens in.

ALL REDS GOT—Gus Bell crosses home plate after his fifth-inning shot into the sundeck which scored Vada Pinson ahead of him. Frank Robinson is next batter while photogenic Umpire Jackowski gets into another picture. Bell's homer accounted for the only two runs scored by the Reds yesterday as their winning streak was stopped at nine.—AP (Gene Smith) Photos.
