

single.

IT WAS short and sweet for temporary manager, Andy Cohen, of the Phillies.

Cohen waited 30 years for a crack at a major league managing job and when he finally got it, he made the most of it as 32,038 fans looked on.

Out-slicking Chuck Dressen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning, 5-4 victory over Milwaukee last night.

Alvin Dark of the Phils collected his 2000th hit when he singled during a three-run sixth.

COLLEGE BASEBALL