

ANDY COHEN QUIT

Manager Of New Orleans For Two Years Resigns

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31.—

(AP)—Vince Rizzo, general manager of the New Orleans Pelicans of the Southern League, announced Wednesday the resignation of Manager Andy Cohen.

Cohen has managed the Pels for the last two seasons.

Since the local club will become affiliated with the New York Yankees next season, it is expected a member of that organization will succeed Cohen.