

PEANUTS LOWREY and LOU KLEIN can renew old friendships and friendly rivalry in the Texas League. . . . Peanuts, who was at New Orleans last season, will manage Austin and Lou, the Memphis skipper, will be in charge at Fort Worth . . . They were chummy off the field . . . FRED 'DIXIE' WALKER JR., signed by the Cardinals for a bonus said to be $50,000, will play ball for his uncle, HARRY WALKER at Houston next season . . . His pop, the former Brooklyn outfielder, manages Toronto in the International League . . . His grandfather EWART WALKER, once pitched for Washington . . . Young Dixie, now 20 years old, pitched for the University of Alabama . . . He's 6-1 and weighs 185.

* * *

ANDY COHEN, who managed New Orleans in the Southern, has a lot of bounce as well as a lot of ability . . . After leaving the Pels he went to Indianapolis of the American Association and this year is transferring to Denver in the same league . . . under Yankee sponsorship . . . DON HEFFNER, who managed Mobile, is now a coach with the Kansas City Athletics . . . FAYE THRONEBERRY, the Memphian, is getting special instructions from COOKIE LAVAGETTO, Washington manager, who wants to correct his tendency to go for bad balls . . . The outfielder, traded to the Nats by Boston, went 30 times at bat without getting a hit to break in, wound up with a .184 average . . . DICK JOHNSON, who played for the Chicks last season, is getting a long look from the Cubs who are somewhat short of outfielders.

—david bloom