

Philadelphia, April 14 (AP)— The Philadelphia Phillies, who made Manager Eddie Sawyer so tired of baseball he quit, defeated the Milwaukee Braves 5-4 in their home opener Thursday night on shortstop Joe Koppe's 10th-inning, run-scoring single.

Acting Manager Andy Cohen won a battle of strategy with Milwaukee's presiding genius, Charley Dressen, in the Phillies' winning 10th and may go down as baseball's only unbeaten manager since he'll be relieved by new skipper Gene Mauch Friday.
