

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/798427716/>

PLANT YUCCAS—Members of the Beautify El Paso Assn., planted eight yuccas today at the new park at U.S.-Mexico Boundary Monument No. 1, located across the Rio Grande from Smeltertown. From left: Mrs. George Kistenmacher, association vice president; Morris Raney, real estate division, U. S. Boundary Commission; Andy Cohen, association president, and Mrs. C. V. Christensen, association secretary. The yuccas were made possible through the co-operation of Ross Hickok and Dick Hulbert of El Paso City Street Dept. Monument Park is a joint venture of the U.S. Section, IBWC, the Beautify El Paso Asso., and the El Paso and Dona Ana Historical Societies.