

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/798449756/>

You can't put the bat close just don't know — you look at with a 11-70—141 total. We were not trying to miss ite after Nicklaus withdrew. ment again next year.

RIDING HIGH — These El Paso Sun Dodgers are riding high in the West Division of the Texas League despite losing their last two games to Alexandria. They are five and one-half games ahead of second-place Amarillo. The team: left to right, Tom Jenkins, Paul Flesner, Wayne Burney, Joe Daniels, Dave Allen, David Hernandez, Dennis James, and Bob Long; standing, trainer Doug Atkinson, Tim Johnson, coach Andy Cohen, Jim Haller, Bob Cummings, Ted Gilje, Dennis Haren, Eddie Solomon, Lee Robinson, Greg Shanahan, Dave Culpepper, Bernie Beckman, Terry McDermott, Jerry Royster, general manager Bill Wood, and assistant general manager Willie Sanchez. Bat boys sitting in front, Steve Forrester, left, and Dave Morris. Not pictured: Wayne Miller, Steve Patchin and Dana Hendershott.