

KOPPE'S SINGLE NUDGES BRAVES

Acting Manager Andy Cohen Pulls Right Strings in 5-4 Phil Verdict.

WHEELS SPIN IN TENTH

In Juggling of Personnel, Milwaukee's Dressen Finishes Second.

Philadelphia, April 14.(AP)
—The Philadelphia Phillies, who made Manager Eddie Sawyer so tired of baseball he up and quit, defeated Milwaukee, 5-4, in their home opener tonight on Joe Koppe's 10th inning run-scoring single.

Andy Cohen, the acting manager, won a battle of strategy with Milwaukee's presiding genius, Charley Dressen, in the Phillies' winning 10th, and may go down as baseball's only unbeaten manager, since he'll be relieved by Gene Mauch tomorrow.

Bobby Del Greco walked to open the extra inning. Del Greco, whose home run helped bring the Phillies from behind in the sixth, stole second. After Jim Coker flied out, the brain work began.

Cohen sent Ted Lepcio, a right-hand hitter to bat for Don Cardwell against Juan Pizarro, southpaw reliever.
Dressen countered with Bob Giggie, a right-hander, and Cohen then subbed John Callison, a left-hand swinger, for Lepcio.

Callison was walked intentionally. Koppe, who had struck out three previous times and was hitless, singled off Johnny Logan's glove at short, scoring Del Greco with the winning run.

Cardwell came on in the fifth inning and in addition to pitching fine ball unloaded the third home run of his major league career in the sixth to tie the score at 4-4.
