

ANDY CAN'T BEAR TO LOSE THIS ONE

A bear, valued at $1,000 will be presented to Manager Andy Cohen tomorrow night if his Denver Bears defeat the Indianapolis Indians in the American Association baseball opener starting at 7:45.

Cohen, who managed the Indians last year, has agreed to accept the bear, which will be presented immediately after the game if Denver wins.

"We'll just ship him to Denver and use him as a mascot," smiled Cohen, who arrived yesterday with the Denver team. The bear was presented to the Indianapolis club by Dr. Marvin Sandorf, who had the trained animal at his Twin drive-in theater.

If the Indians defeat Denver, the bear will be kept in Indianapolis as a "teaser" to Cohen in future Denver-Indianapolis games.

(Aerial Photo of yesterday's exhibition game on Page 12.)