

Tribe Spring Drill Schedule Announced

More than 30 ball players will go to Hollywood, Fla. early in March for the Indianapolis Indians' spring training.

The pitchers and catchers report on March 12 and the balance of the team hopefuls on March 17.

THE LOCAL INDIANS — owned by 6,672 fans—are scheduled for four workouts against Toronto, champions of the International League.

The new manager of the Indians, Andy Cohen, will be at the training site early.

The club will break camp April 13 following a 1:30 p.m. game against Toronto. There'll be no stops north for further action until the opening of the home season at Victory Field on April 16 against Minneapolis. This year's opener will be at night—starting at 7:45 o'clock.
