

1954 and 1955.

ANDY COHEN, the Indianapolis Indians' new manager, will arrive in town Thursday morning for a few days get-together with Tribe officials and sportswriters. A noon luncheon at Victory Field is set for Thursday. More than $32,000 in tickets have been sold under various season ticket plans. First Baseman Joe Altobelli, who will report to the Cleveland training camp in Tucson, Ariz., next month, is available for speeches in central Indiana. Joe is selling tickets for the Tribe before he heads West.
