

Grab 3-2
Decision
In Ninth

Hollywood, Fla.—It was another afternoon to put a smile on Manager Andy Cohen's face yesterday as it is whenever his Indianapolis Indians youngsters do a good job.

They duelled for seven scoreless innings with the Kansas City "B" team, then put over the winning run with none out in the ninth. The 3-2 triumph was the second over the Athletics as the Tribe's "Suntan League" record went to 6-2.

Barry Latman blanked the major leaguers for five innings, the 20-year-old rookie right-hander striking out seven batters.

Another 20-year-old recruit, Glen Rosenbaum of Union Mills (LaPorte County) added three more frames to the whitewash job before he allowed the two Kansas City tallies on four hits in the ninth.

An inside-the-park home run by J. C. Martin, also 20, accounted for two Indian markers in the eighth. It was another fine day at first base for the 6-3 lad whose only experience has been part of a season with Holdrege in the Nebraska All-Rookie League.

Because of Martin's inexperience, it might appear that Cohen would shelve the youngsters in favor of the publicized addition to the squad yesterday, 6-7 Ron Jackson. But the rookie's play this spring especially has been gratifying to the Indians' manager, who refers to him as "a bear-down guy."

MARTIN'S HOMER, a left-center smash by the lefthanded batter, came off Wally Burnette, who had walked Gene Sheets to set up the other run.

Then, in the ninth, Dave Newkirk, acquired by the A's after a 12-7 season at Shreveport, put himself into quick trouble with a pass to Don Mincher. Don Prohovich's single was too difficult for Shortstop Mike Baxes to handle. Vince Garcia sacrificed, but Curt Roberts, moving over to first, dropped Cletus Boyer's throw and the bases were full.

Newkirk threw four straight bad pitches to Ted Beard and the game was over.

The Indians collected eight hits in six innings off the A's frontline southpaw, Alex Kellner, but couldn't score, stranding seven runners in that stretch.

LATMAN DID a magnificent job in his five frames, three times checking the A's with runners in scoring position.

Rosenbaum was in trouble in the ninth when he yielded singles to Leroy Schmidt and Baxes. With one out, a pinch-hitter, Maurice McDermott, singled over a run and Roberts did the same with two out.
