

Club Departs Saturday Night

By MAX GREENWALD, Star Sports Writer

Hollywood, Fla.—Manager Andy Cohen last night announced a roster of 23 players who will go North to Indianapolis when the Indians break camp Saturday night.

Like all such lists, this one contains two or three tentative names, as Cohen and Ownie Bush, Tribe president, try for deals in efforts to strengthen the club.

WITH THIS in mind, here are the 1957 Tribesmen:

Pitchers: Chico Arias, Arnie Atkins, Charley Bicknell, Joe Dahlke, Bill DuFour, Barry Lapman, Al Papai, Tony Ponce, Glen Rosenbaum, Don Rudolph, George Spencer, Ed Szyzewski.

Catchers: Sam Hairston, John Romano.

Infielders: Ron Jackson, first base; Vince Garcia, second base; Don Prohovich, shortstop; Charley Williams, third base; Gene Sheets, utility.

Outfielders: Ted Beard, Jim Delsing, Dick DiTusa, Dick Means.

Perhaps the biggest surprise was selection of the 20-year-old Szyzewski, in Class C in 1956 and assigned this spring to the Davenport Class B roster. However, the youngster's strong pitching in exhibition play earned him the edge in the last minute discussions.

PHIL BROWN was the hurler who missed out when the choice went to Szyzewski. Another pitcher on the Indianapolis spring list who wasn't is Hal Trosky, regarded as not ready yet.

The list of 12 moundsmen has only five hurlers who have proven their ability in Triple A or better—Atkins, Bicknell, Papai, Ponce and Spencer.

Arias and Rudolph are the only left-handers on the staff.

A problem has arisen during the past week in regard to catching. Romano hasn't played since April 2 because of an ailment to his throwing arm which has defied medical diagnosis. His right elbow was heavily bandaged yesterday.

It's still possible Romano will be left here for disposition by the parent Chicago White Sox organization and in that case, Gene Martin, a 20-year-old rookie up from Waterloo, will make the northward trip.

THE INDIANS are strenuously endeavoring for a deal which would ease the shortstop situation where Prohovich has had only 70 games of pro experience. If the addition is made, Sheets will be returned to the White Sox. Among the outfielders, both DeTusa and Means are untried at this level of play.

Cohen reiterated at the conference yesterday that everything is being done to bolster the squad but emphasized that players aren't easy for a independent organization to obtain.

Yesterday's game with Buffalo was called off when a cloud burst hit Pompano Beach three-quarters of an hour before game time.

This cancellation interfered with Cohen's plans to look at some of his pitchers. He was scheduled to use Russ Heman, Rudolph and Dahlke. Rudolph has worked three innings with the Indians since coming down from the White Sox while Heman and Dahlke haven't hurled at all in this camp.

SO, IT CAN BE regarded that Heman still has a chance to break into the roster if his showing warrants. But time's a'wastin' as Cohen has had to cut down from a working staff of 20.

Only Beard and Spencer remain from the community-owned club which swept the A.A. pennant, the playoffs and the Little World Series last year. The drastic upheaval of personnel followed sundering of the working agreement with Cleveland.

Hired At Monticello

Lafayette, Ind. (AP) — Paul Moore, Richland Twp. coach the last five years, signed a 3-year contract last night to coach the Monticello high school basketball team. Moore is a Wabash graduate. His Richland Twp. team had a 22-5 record this year.
