

Rudolph 'Look' Halted By Rain

By MAX GREENWALD, Star Sports Writer

Hollywood, Fla.—Don Rudolph doesn't want to do any bench-warming while with the Indianapolis Indians this year.

And, Manager Andy Cohen will have no choice but to keep him busy as Rudolph and Chico Arias are the only southpaws on the Tribe pitching staff.

Rudolph has had just three innings of work with the Indians since coming down from the Chicago White Sox. Cohen wanted to get another look at the 25-year-old hurler yesterday but was thwarted when rain again interfered with the game against Buffalo at Pompano Beach.

THE BISONS didn't get the ball out of the infield as Rudolph retired three straight batters in the tilt which was stopped with none out in the fifth and Buffalo ahead 6-1.

Rudolph came into baseball through the semi-pro ranks in Baltimore and was signed into the Philadelphia Athletics organization in 1949.

After a wrenched shoulder sustained playing high school soccer resulted in his dismissal by the A's, Rudolph hooked up with a team in Jesup, Ga.

After a 28-8 record in 1951, he was purchased by the White Sox. Rudolph was 7-2 at Colorado Springs before he was summoned for military duty in July of 1952.

Rudolph was a reliever in 1955 for Memphis, then asked to be a starter last year. He was 11-10 as his 3.19 record narrowly missed winning him the earned-run-average championship.

IT WAS WHILE at Colorado Springs that Rudolph first met Patricia Brownell, to whom he has been married since Oct. 18, 1955. Patricia is known in the entertainment world as Patti Waggin of burlesque fame, whose weekly salary is reported to be on a four-figure scale.

Patti is 22 years old, 36-23-35 in dimensions and a member of a third-generation show-business family.

She was on stage in Indianapolis last January when Don first visited the city and he was impressed favorably with the Hoosier capital.

Last year, Patti not only kept Rudolph's baseball records but the ERA figures for all pitchers in the Southern Association.

In yesterday's game, Dick Means led off with a home run over the rightfield fence and Vince Garcia belted one that Rodney Graber snared leaning over the left-center wire fence.

BUT THE Indians couldn't get another hit off Glenn Cox until Jim Delsing led off in the fifth with a vicious hopper which struck Luke Easter smack on the forehead.

The big first baseman was felled by the smash but in a moment was able to get up, grinning. Then the rains came again and play couldn't be resumed.

In his only Indianapolis chance, Russ Heman stormed the Bisons for two innings. Then Buffalo made six runs in the third. Mike Baxes and Joe Caffie each belted a homer with two on.

Don Prohovich again was tried at third, paving the way for the long-talked-about new arrival at shortstop. The newcomer undoubtedly will be Joe Valdivielso from Washington.

The Indians also are trying to do business with the Senators for an outfielder. They thought they had a chance to get Carlos Paula, but he was sold to Minneapolis.

DICK TETTELACH, who had a fine season with Denver in 1955, also may be on the market along with Neil Chrisley, although the latter is a left-handed swinger.

Three of the Tribe's four outfielders are left-handed batters.

The Tribe will play Toronto today at Fort Pierce.
