

Miners Look For New Win Streak

The Texas Miners go back to the playing field in search of a new winning string Monday when they host the Denver University Pioneers in a single game at 2:30 p.m. at Dudley Field.

Coach Andy Cohen's University of Texas at El Paso diamond crew saw an eight-game winning streak snapped last week when they lost two games, to Southern Illinois University and to Colorado State College. Their second game with CSC, Saturday, was canceled by wet grounds.

Monday's game, first of a two-game set with the Pioneers, starts a six-game grind with games scheduled each day.

Following the Denver game Tuesday will come tilts with Colorado State University Wednesday and Thursday and University of Colorado Friday and Saturday.

University of Oklahoma is scheduled for games Monday and Tuesday of next week here to wrap up the most concentrated portion of the Miner schedule.
