

Miners Open Series With Duke City Teams

Special to EL PASO TIMES
ALBUQUERQUE — Hard-working Harry Milner who will, hopefully, see two starting assignments this week, will get the call Wednesday when Texas-El Paso opens a five-game baseball series with Albuquerque based teams.

Coach Andy Cohen's Miners face University of Albuquerque Wednesday and Thursday, in single games, before opening Western Athletic Conference play Friday and Saturday against University of New Mexico. Saturday's action includes a double dip.

"Milner is the type pitcher who thrives on work," Cohen said. "I hope to be able to use him in the opener against the Dons and have him ready for the doubleheader Saturday against New Mexico. Of course, a lot depends on how well he does Wednesday. In fact a lot may depend on our entire pitching rotation on how well Harry performs in the opening game."

Cohen went on to say that, if he needs to, he may use Marc Bombard in a short relief role if needed Wednesday. However, Bombard will be one of the hurlers for Saturday's double feature along with, perhaps, Milner.

Milner has a 3-3 record while Bombard is the ace, boasting a 4-2 mark.

Cohen is somewhat undecided about his second day pitcher against the Dons. It probably will be either Ron Peterson, who owns a 1-1 mark, or Bill Dieselhorst with Larry Smith being held in reserve.

Lynn Hunt, who has gotten off to a shaky start and now holds a 2-3 mark, will open against the Lobos Friday.

If a right hander is throwing for the Dons Wednesday, Cohen will employ lefty hitting Larry Currie at first base. If it is a lefty, John Miller will move in from right field to handle first base with John Murphy going to the outer garden.

Otherwise, Cohen's lineup, which has a 11-10 record, will consist of Ron Rush at second; Juan Sandoval, shortstop; Danny Blanco, third; Rick Butler, left field; Mike Ward, center; either Miller or Murphy at right with Ron Hix behind the plate.

While Bombard has the best pitching record on Cohen's staff, Blanco, of the regulars, leads the hit parade with a .348 average with Hix showing a .317 average and Miller .309.
