Thanksgiving dinner will cost a family of five persons approximately $1 less than last year, according to an estimate made by the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. Turkey is 12 cents a pound cheaper than last year and oysters are also lower in cost.

Dorrance D. Roderick and Andy Cohen, favorites in the race for the Shrine ring handicap, ran a dead heat all the way last night to cross the line in a tie. Two rings were awarded when the final count revealed both candidates were equally popular.

Homer Harris Jr., of Henderson, Tex., has been named assistant vice president of the El Paso National Bank.
