

Vice Commander To Speak At Region Tourney Banquet

Tickets are now on sale for the American Legion State Baseball Tournament Banquet this Wednesday, which features Dr. Edwin L. Peterson as keynote speaker.

The banquet, slated for 7 p.m.

Rainbow Futurity's Dash One Slated For Sunday Card

RUIDOSO DOWNS — A top-flight field of two-year-old quarter racers will clash Sunday in Dash 1 of the opulent Rainbow Futurity. From the purse of $79,178, the winner will take home a tidy $24,345, while the tenth place finisher gets a neat $1,386. The Futurity will be contested at 400 yards with all starters carrying 120 pounds.

Included in the field are the fastest ten qualifiers from trials run last week, and among them are the first three finishers in the Kansas Futurity run in June.

Lady Bug's Moon, a youngster gifted with unusual speed, set the pace in the trials by posting a blistering qualifying time of 20.02 seconds for the 400 yards. The chestnut son of Top Moon will be after the second leg of in the Milton Student Center at New Mexico State University will honor the six teams which will take part in the double elimination tournament starting 10 a.m. Thursday.

Tickets are being sold at the Farmers and Merchants Bank, the First National Bank, Model

Cleaners, City Drug and Joe Jaramillo and Son Mobil Service Station. The tickets, $3.50 apiece, should be picked up by noon in order that reservations can be made.

Tickets can also be reserved by calling Tournament Director Al Apodaca at 526-2586, or banquet chairman W. L. Decker at 524-4940.

Dr. Peterson is professor of social sciences, coordinator of military affairs (ROTC) and chairman of the athletic council at Utah State University.

He is presently the American Legion National Vice Commander and has been on the National Americanism Commission since 1964.

Baseball celebrity speaker for the banquet will be Andy Cohen of the El Paso Sun Kings.

Garnett R. Burks Jr., of Post 10, will emcee the affair.

The six teams to be honored Wednesday night are Los Alamos, Albuquerque Sandia, Albuquerque Monzano, Alamogordo, Las Cruces and either Roswell or Lovington, depending on which wins their playoff, said Apodaca.

Actual tournament play is set to begin at 10 a.m. Thursday,

Dr. Edwin L. Peterson