

10 YEARS AGO

Senator John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), announced he will enter Nebraska's presidential preference primary. He flew to Omaha to make the announcement only a few hours after disclosing in Milwaukee his decision to take on Minnesota's Senator Hubert Humphrey in the Wisconsin preference primary.

Baseball had its inning in mid-winter here as more than 200 Eau Claire Brave fans met their new manager, Bill Stein-ecke, and heard an old one, Andy Cohen, named to the Eau Claire's Baseball Hall of Fame. Milwaukee Braves Manager Charlie Dressen and former big leaguer Rip Collins entertained the guests.

15 YEARS AGO

Pessimists, who think American youth are losing their vitality compared to what it was 20 or 50 years ago, evidently haven't met Don Arries, 17, Eau Claire, or Richard Schnobelen, 17, Minocqua, youngest students enrolled at Wis-