AN OLD VAUDEVILLE BIT is revived by Bernie (No Relation To Andy) Cohen, 809 West 29th Street, as he writes: "Just finished listening to Byrum Saam's play-by-play on the Phillies' victory over L.A., 4-2. Saam was saying what a nice clear, dry day it was for baseball in L.A. But about 10 minutes later, Jack Meyer was in trouble and Gene Mauch went on the mound to talk with the pitcher. What broke me up was when Saam said 'There's Mauch and Meyer on the mound' (and not a drop of rain had fallen)."
