

John Thom, a man who should know, that Noblesville played basketball before 1913. John, who played here himself in 1909, states that he knows there was a squad here in 1906 and that "Dutch" Comstock, a local cleaning establishment proprietor, was a member of the '06 squad.

All information we were able to use in the stories, we acquired by searching back through old NHS yearbooks and old editions of Noblesville newspapers. Any additional information, or corrections on information already printed, will be greatly appreciated.

Seven Indianapolis Baseballers Signed

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Three more players signed their baseball contracts with the Indians to bring to seven the total in the past 24 hours.

Arnie Atkins, who pitched for San Diego last year, signed yesterday when he visited Victory Field and met with Ray Johnston, the Indians' general manager.

Johnston today announced the signing also of Hal Trosky, pitcher with Duluth-Superior last year; additional pitcher, Phillip Brown, Tony Ponce, Willis Sperry; Catcher Sam Hairston, and Infielder Joseph Martin.

Atkins was to leave early today for Florida. He plans to work out at the Chicago White Sox training camp at Tampa until the Indians' camp opens March 12 at Hollywood, Fla. The Tribe president Donie Bush and Manager Andy Cohen already are in the south.

Coach Johnny Hutchings is scheduled to go to Hollywood March 8. In the meantime "Hutch" is appearing at the Sport Show in the Fairground's Coliseum and will continue to make personal appearances at clubs and organizations along with the showing of the 1956 World Series movie.

Advance ticket sales were near $40,000 today, it was announced at Victory Field. Over $38,000 worth of tickets on season plans and for opening day had been sold at the ball park.
