Bears Face Stars At Denver Monday

DENVER (AP) — At least five American Assn. clubs will have players in the starting lineup of the All-Star team playing the Denver Bears here Monday night.

Ben Geraghty, Wichita Braves manager who will skipper the team, announced this lineup Saturday:

Casey Wise, Wichita, 2b; Bob Hale, Louisville, 1b; Ben Valenzuela, Omaha, 3b; Bobby Gene Smith, Omaha, CF; John Callison, Indianapolis, rf; Willie Tasby, Louisville, lf; Ed Sadowski, Minneapolis, c; Lee Tate, Omaha, ss, and the pitcher.

Geraghty said he will select his starting hurler later from among Jerry Davie, Charleston; Barry Latman, Indianapolis; Ted Bowsfield and Bill Monbouquette, Minneapolis; Bob Darnell, St. Paul, and Juan Pizarro and Red Murff, Wichita.

Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Denver won the honor as host team by leading the league after play on July 4. The Bears held a half-game lead going into Saturday night's games.

This will be the second time the All-Star contest has been played here, Denver winning 10-8 two years ago. Andy Cohen, the Bears manager, played in the league's All-Star games in 1934 and 1935 as second baseman for Minneapolis.
