

They Say in Sports

Charlie Coe, Walker Cup captain from Oklahoma City, after beating Jim Hiskey of the University of Houston in the third round of the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament Friday: "I really thought I'd lose today, because Hiskey was putting so well and I was doing poorly on the greens. But he missed some greens at crucial moments."

"Andy Cohen, Indianapolis manager, summing up the American Association race: "Wichita's pitching has held it up, but the Braves won't win the title; Omaha has good pitching; St. Paul has a young club with speed and hitting; Denver is better balanced now, but I'll take Minneapolis for the pennant. The Indians? We've had a lot of injuries, but we're only $8\frac{1}{2}$ back and not out of it yet."
