

3-Run Rally Washed Out

Special to the Sunday Tribune

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — A severe thunderstorm denied the Minneapolis Millers a possible victory here Saturday night after they had scored three runs in the top of the eighth for a 5-2 lead.

Resumption of play was impossible after the heavy downpour and the score reverted to the seventh inning for a 2-all tie. The makeup game will be played in Minneapolis, Aug. 26 on the Tribe's visit there as this was the Millers' last game in Indianapolis.

RAIN, WHICH began falling in the fifth inning, continued at intervals and began picking up force when the Millers went to bat in the eighth. Bill Taylor opened this inning with a single and Orlando Cepeda followed suit. A sacrifice fly, Foster Castleman's infield hit and Bob Prescott's triple accounted for the three runs erased from the records.

Pete Burnside retired the first two Indians quickly in the bottom of the eighth, but, with the rain coming harder and Burnside obviously trying to hurry his pitches, the Indians began to make trouble. Sam Mele doubled and John Romano and Charley Williams singled for one run.

At this point, Manager Red Davis dashed out of the dugout and waved frantically for Freddy Rodriguez from the bullpen. But Freddy was in no great hurry. When he finally arrived at the mound and completed his warmup tosses, Manager Andy Cohen called time and sent Jim Delsing in to bat for Dick Ditusa.

BY THIS TIME the rain was coming down in torrents, but Umpire John Mullen refused to call time. On a second strike call that seemed low and inside Delsing, Cohen and Coach Johnny Hutchins stormed Mullen in protest. Meanwhile it was difficult to see across the diamond because of the torrential rain and Mullen was forced to call time.

During the seven innings that went into the records, Burnside fanned eight, walked one and allowed seven hits. He had another strikeout and three more hits against him in the washed out inning.

Jim McDonald also yielded seven hits in the legal seven frames, but escaped the damage of four more hits and the three runs in the eighth. Both clubs threatened frequently, but found difficulty in reaching home base.

The Indians were first to hit pay dirt, scoring a run in the fourth on singles by Ron Jackson, Mele and Romano. But the Millers bounced back to take the lead with two in the fifth.

PRESCOTT led off with a single and stopped at third on Wayne Terwilliger's single into right center. Don Grate's sacrifice fly scored Prescott and Terwilliger tallied when Taylor sliced a bloop double into left.

In their half of the fifth, the Indians came back to steal a run and make it 2-2 as it started to rain. With one out, Jose Valdivielso stole home without a play being made on him. Burnside seemed unaware that Valdivielso was running.
