

... Gary Gohde, a Minneapolis boy, and Mel Warner of Grand Meadow were two standouts on this year's team while Bob Stransky of Yankton, S. D., was named the outstanding back in the Big Eight conference . . .

Andy Cohen, former Miller and 1957 Indianapolis manager, is expected to be named manager of the Colorado Springs team of the Western league . . . Joe Hauser, ex-Miller home run king, is here and says he will manage Duluth again in 1958 . . .

Matt Baskin, ex-Blake catcher, is a member of the first eight at Colorado . . .