

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/202816046/>

President Ed Doherty of the American Association looks for "another solid league in 1958 with only Louisville still undecided on its manager."

Doherty said the Colonels offered the job to George Kell, who retired as a major league player at Baltimore. Kell, however, rejected it, saying he didn't want to "go back to the minors, even to manage."

Eddie Robinson, ex-major league first baseman, is believed being considered for the Louisville post now.

"BIG WALKER Cooper is a good addition at Indianapolis, Ben Geraghty is set at Wichita again after getting salary differences straightened out, Andy Cohen is a popular man in Denver and Gene Mauch will add some scrap at Minneapolis," Doherty proclaimed.

nor league territory. Despite all the roadblocks thrown into the minors' path by the majors, Doherty continues to be as optimistic as ever for a prosperous 1958.

"We're looking for a good season on the field and in attendance. The interest is high all around the league and I'm certainly glad to have the Red Sox in Minneapolis."

Doherty reported that Dallas has queried frequently about entrance into the AA. "We're set for 1958 now," Ed said, "and I don't see any changes until a franchise opens up. We have none available now, so I guess Dallas will have to wait."

Doherty attended the executive session in New York recently concerned with major league television into mi-

inst Skill

the other.

Tonight's bout, calling for one fall within 60 minutes, will record the answer.

Joe Pazandak will risk his $1,000 purse for the first man to pin him within 30 minutes in the semi-windup against Farmer Don Marlin.

Season Ducats Now On Sale

for the Upper Midwest Golden Glove

Feb. 10 and 17
(Only Two Nights)

at the

MINNEAPOLIS AUDITORIUM

Have the Best Seat in the house for two nights of boxing

Others for $4 and $2.50

Tickets now on sale at the Downtown Ticket Office, Northwestern Bank lobby.

Single night tickets go on sale Feb. 8

$5