

Lobos, UTEP Battle for 3rd

New Mexico and Texas-El Paso battle this weekend for third place in the Western Athletic Conference Southern Division baseball standings.

The Lobos, 25-17 overall and 0-6 in league play, host the Miners this afternoon at 2 at the Sports Stadium. UNM and UTEP, 24-16 and 1-5, will play a Saturday double-header at 1.

New Mexico Coach Vince

Cappelli says he'll start sophomore John Cherney, 6-3, today, then junior Rob Hoover, 3-3, and senior Bruce Barber, 3-2, Saturday.

Miners Coach Andy Cohen, who played for the New York Giants in 1926, is in his 16th year at UTEP. He plans to start either Nick Fiorillo, 4-2, or Jerry Walker, 4-3 today. Jim Sacco, 5-4, and Russ Bortell, 3-2, are Cohen's probable pitchers Saturday.

The Miners occupy third place in the league by virtue of their 11-7 victory last weekend at Arizona, a team that swept three straight from the Lobos in Albuquerque. Texas-El Paso didn't make an error afield in it double-header last Saturday against the Wildcats.

Both the Lobos and Miners boast strong catchers. Freshman Duffy Ryan leads UNM with a .403 batting average. UTEP junior Rich Hildebrand is batting .333.
