

Sports in Tucson

Wing to stay on UA coaching staff

University of Arizona assistant baseball coach Jim Wing has taken himself out of the coaching picture at the University of Texas-El Paso by signing a contract with the UA for the upcoming year.

"Yes, I have renewed my contract at the university," said Wing. "I am very excited and happy. I am 110 percent a member of the Arizona baseball staff."

Wing was one of several persons contacted by UTEP to replace Andy Cohen who retired after 16 years as head coach at the El Paso school.

All Wing would say about the situation is that "it (a job offer) never really materialized . . . I'm not interested, at least right now in the job."

Grabb advances

Tucsonan Jimmy Grabb defeated Kristopher Braaten of Chicago 6-3, 6-4 yesterday to advance to the fourth round of the National Boys 14-under Clay Court championships at Shelter Rock Tennis Club in Manhasset, N.Y. Grabb meets Ken Durr, Orinda, Calif., today. The tournament is sanctioned by the United States Tennis Association.

Grabb teamed with Mark Styslinger of Birmingham, Ala. to defeat Jeff Klaparda of Hollywood, Fla. and Ira Swartz of Davis, Fla., 6-7, 6-3, 6-3 in doubles.

Tucsonan in pentathlon

Cheryl Westhafer, an eighth grader at Flowing Wells Junior High, will begin competition today in the U.S. Modern Pentathlon Olympic Development Program at Fort Sam Houston in Texas. The 13-year-old is the only Arizonan among the 20 competitors.

Russell is second

Ivan Russell finished second to Dan Ambrose of Phoenix in the Ward Gray Memorial 100-lap stock car race at Manzanita in Phoenix Friday.

Russell led briefly in the latter stages of the race but spun off the track in water from the broken radiator of another car.

Jim Thompson of Tucson was seventh.

Bowlers in Texas

Davis Vergara and Janet Majeske of Tucson was among the competitors bowling for $4,000 in scholarships in regional competition of the All-America Youth Bowling championships in Fort Worth starting Thursday.