

WAC Baseball A-State Sweeps Poor El Paso

TEMPE (AP) — The onslaught involved only three games in two days and there were no extra innings, but it must have seemed like years to Texas-El Paso, as Arizona State swept this weekend's baseball series.

The Sun Devils capped the series with a 20-to-nothing victory in the night game of Saturday's doubleheader. Earlier in the day, ASU defeated the Miners 11-2.

The victories improved the Sun Devils season record to 47-8 overall and 8-1 in the Western Athletic Conference, while the Miners dropped to 7-18 and 1-8 in the league.

ASU coach Jim Brock suggested calling Saturday night's game in the seventh inning, but was turned down by Miner coach Andy Cohen.

The Sun Devils hit .422 during the three-game series and had seven home runs to bring the season homer total to 59.

Don Hanna pitched an eight-hitter Saturday afternoon, striking out ten, walking two and improving his season record to 12-0.

Pat Gillie and Mitch Dean combined for the night shutout. Gillie got his sixth win with six innings of the game and Dean got his seventh save. Gillie allowed five hits and Dean none.
