Doherty to Honor Mauch at Miller Baseball Dinner

President Ed Doherty of the American Association will appear at the 13th annual Baseball Booster banquet at the Pick-Nicollet hotel next Monday night to present Miller Manager Gene Mauch the 1959 "manager-of-the-year award."

Mauch, who will start his third campaign with the Millers in 1960, has finished third and second in two years at the Minneapolis helm, each year winning the play-offs and "manager-of-the-year" honors.

Other head table guests will include Bob Shaw of the White Sox, Bill Skowron of the Yankees, honored guest Andy Cohen, comedian Jack Onslow and Houston Manager Enos Slaughter. Halsey Hall will be toastmaster.

Tickets, priced at $10 and which will pay five admissions to Miller home games in 1960, are on sale at Metropolitan stadium, Billy and Marty's and Duffy's.
