

Sawyer Out As Pilot Of Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Eddie Sawyer, whose 1950 "Whiz Kids" were the Philadelphia Phillies' only pennant-winners in the past 45 years, quit suddenly Thursday as manager of this year's Phillies and was replaced by young, aggressive Gene Mauch.

Mauch, a former major league infielder who skipped the Minneapolis into the Little World Series two straight years, announced immediately in Homestead, Fla., he hopes to become "the best big league manager in the business."

All that the balding, 49-year-old Sawyer wants is out. The one-time professor reached his decision to quit Wednesday night and the only explanation he would make Thursday was, "I just don't want to manage a major league ball club."

Mauch could not arrive here in time for Thursday night's game against Milwaukee, and the club was guided in his absence by Coach Andy Cohen.

Thus ended, with "surprise and shock" on the part of club officials, the Phillies' second era under Sawyer. His first term as manager (1948-52) was highlighted by the '50 pennant, the Phillies' first since 1915. His second term, which began July 22, 1958, was dismal—two last place finishes.

Most experts tab the Phils to finish last again this year, but Sawyer didn't criticize the players in his resignation.

And he insisted that spring training problems—which included a stormy incident when pitcher Jim Owens was fined $600 for becoming involved in a tap-room scrape—were not a factor in his decision. He also insisted he had no trouble with the front office.

"I just don't care to manage a major league ball club," he repeated over and over to questioners. "I would like to stay in baseball, but have no plans at this time."

Montreal Cops 5th Stanley Cup Crown

TORONTO (UPI)—Led by giant center Jean Beliveau, the power-loaded Montreal Canadiens swept to an unprecedented fifth consecutive Stanley Cup with a convincing 4-0 triumph over the game but outclassed Toronto Maple Leafs Thursday night. Beliveau scored twice while Henri Richard and Doug Harvey added single goals as the Canadiens again skated off with the cup by whipping the Maple Leafs in four straight games.

Dis't IX Committee Acts On DuBois Case; Apology Suggested

A meeting of the District IX Committee was held in Reynoldsville Thursday with all members present. The purpose of the session was to act on the DuBois-Farrell PIAA basketball playoff incident in the Pitt field house.

Also present were Steve Black, coach of the DuBois Area High School basketball team; E. J. Mansell, principal of the DuBois Area High School; D. W. Weaver, superintendent of the DuBois Area Schools, and William Fairman, president of the DuBois Area School Board.

Each of the DuBois men present was asked to present their version of the incident that took place at the DuBois-Farrell game Wednesday, March 23, at which time Coach Black removed his team from the floor in objection to the officiating.

The District IX Committee then went into executive session and took the following action: (1) commended Mr. Mansell, principal of the DuBois Area High School, for his action in demanding that the team return to the playing court thereby averting a probable suspension of DuBois Area High School from the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association; (2) recommended that Steve Black express to the DuBois Area High School principal, administration, student body, board of control and the public his attitude as expressed to the District Committee; (3) the recommendations and action taken thereon shall be forwarded to the state Board of Control for review by that body at a meeting in University Park Saturday, May 28.

District IX Committee members present at the meeting were: Chairman Glenn Henery, of Punxsutawney; Joseph Kata, of New Bethlehem; Donald Hiwiler, of Rimersburg; Oliver Cashdollar, of Evans City; Sam Schettino, of Reynoldsville; Samuel Davenport, of DuBois; Blair Rupert, of Brockway; Ralph Castafiero, of Ridgway, and Harold Brace, of Bradford.

Pirates Add Paul Giel To Roster; Release Olivo

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Pitcher Paul Giel was placed on the Pittsburgh Pirates roster on the basis of his spring training performance.

The Pirates elevated Giel and detoured 40-year-old rookie Diomedes Olivo to the Columbus Jets of the International League. Olivo was sent to the Poza Rica of the Mexican League which then sold him to Columbus, the Pirates' International League affiliate.

Giel had been on the roster of Salt Lake City of the Pacific Coast League.

Mary Kathryn (Mickey) Wright, 1958 and 1959 Women's National Open champion, is 5-feet-8.

Phils Beat Braves In 10th, 5-4

United Press International

It was short and sweet for interim Manager Andy Cohen of the Phillies, who comes down from cloud nine today and goes back to the coaching line again.

Cohen waited 30 years for a crack at a major league managing job and when he finally got it, through a strange combination of circumstances, he certainly made the most of it.

Out-slicking Charlie Dresen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning, 5-4 victory over Milwaukee last night and if nothing else, Cohen can always say he "retired" as the most successful manager in Phillies' history.

The Braves jumped in front with three runs in the first inning when Hank Aaron slammed a two-run homer and Joe Adcock followed with a solo blast. But the Phils battled back and tied the score at 4-4.

Bobby DelGreco, who had homered earlier, walked to open the 10th and stole second. Jimmy Coker flied out and Cohen then sent up Ted Lepcio to hit for pitcher Don Cardwell, whose homer tied the score in the sixth. Dresen countered by bringing in Bobby Giggie to relieve Juan Pizarro.

Not to be out-done, Cohen replaced Lepcio with left-handed hitting John Callison, who was purposely passed. After all that master-minding, Joe Koppe singled home the winning run.

Alvin Dark of the Phils collected his 2,000th hit when he singled during a three-run sixth.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their third consecutive loss, 3-2; the Cubs inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the Giants, 6-5, and the Pirates crushed the Reds, 13-0.

Gil Hodges drove in the tying run for the Dodgers with a triple in the ninth and then scored the winning one on Bob Dilliba's wild pitch. Ken Boyer and Duke Snider each hit homers. Ed Roebuck relieved starter Johnny Podres in the eighth and was the winner. Dilliba, the Cards' fourth pitcher, was the loser.

A wind-blown-pop-fly double by Frank Thomas in the ninth scored Bob Will with the winning run for the Cubs after the Giants had tied the score at 5-5 on Willie McCovey's three-run homer in the eighth. Orlando Cepeda and Willie Kirkland also hit homers for the Giants while Ernie Banks hit the eighth grand slam of his career for the Cubs. Don Elston was the winner and Billy O'Dell the loser.
