

Cohen Sees Miner Club As Better

It's going to be a different season for the U.T.-El Paso baseball team.

Andy Cohen's diamondmen somehow survived a disaster last year. The Miners suffered heavy defeats such as a 30-0 blast from powerful Arizona State University.

The Miners one year ago, to put it mildly, just did not have the needed enthusiasm and desire of a winning team.

BUT COHEN IS nowhere disillusioned with the '73 squad which opens play next week with a pair of double-headers scheduled Friday and Saturday, starting at 1 p.m. both days, against Hardin Simmons University.

"This is not like last year's ball club," Cohen said, "we have a bunch of men out here now who want to play ball. They are hustling all of the time. There are some jobs open and they are fighting hard for spots on this team."

Cohen pointed out that 35 athletes turned out for the Miners spring training this year.

HEADING THE list were veterans Ernie Hernandez, Bobby Knox, Terry Baker, Barry Albutis, Tim Peden, Malcolm McClean, Joe Kuentler, Ray Greggerson, Lali Maldonado, Joe Pennies and Larry Alvarado.

"We have a number of new boys trying out who can really help the team," Cohen added.

"In the infield we have Herbie Von Hagen of Cohise College; Mark Miller, a local youth transferring here from Regis College, is a good infielder who can play either second, short or third base; and Glen Villareal of Eastwood High School.

"LARRY MCKAY of Providence, R.I., has tremendous speed and will be a welcomed addition to the outfield. John Hahn, who is practicing with us when the Miner football team is not working out, is a transfer student from Taft Junior College in California. Hahn has good strength and takes a good healthy swing at the plate."

Pete Schaffer and Jim Brundage are trying out as catchers.

New faces in the mound staff for the Miners are: Jeff Hogan of Pampa, Mike Miller (a converted catcher) of Eastwood High School, Mike Hilton of Andrews, Tex., Tony Eaton of El Paso, Larry Richardson of Odessa, Dave Wade of Ranger Junior College, Bob Downing (who will pitch and play the outfield) and Mike Krute of Arlington, Tex.

"WE ARE definitely going to have a better defensive ball club than last year," Cohen stressed. "We lost quite a number of ball games last year in the clutch on errors. The pitching staff should come around, but only time will tell.

"McKay and McKlean give us good speed in the outfield and Von Haggan and Villareal will help us in the infield."
