

Miners Grab First Pair, To Play Tech

It definitely is a different year for Andy Cohen.

Cohen suffered last year as his U.T.-El Paso baseball team was blitzed to a 12-39 record. Mediocre fielding and a questionable pitching staff helped in the downfall.

Pitching was a question mark for 1972.

Was.

THE MINERS romped to a 4-3, 5-1 doubleheader sweep over Hardin Simmons Saturday at Dudley Field. Miner pitchers Ray Greggerson, Jeff Hogan and Mike Hilton permitted only nine hits in the 14 innings on the mound.

U.T.-El Paso hosts Texas Tech Friday and Saturday at Dudley Field. The two teams will play doubleheaders each day starting at 1 p.m.

"Greggerson had some real good stuff out there," remarked Cohen. "He pitched five strong innings of scoreless ball, but began to tire a bit in the sixth and gave up a single, a walk and a home run.

"I thought his performance was great considering he had just come off a shoulder separation injury recently.

"HILTON REALLY looked good in that second game. He pitched all the way and wasn't in any trouble."

Barry Alburtis' singles off the glove of Hardin Simmons' hurler Rick Finley in the bottom of the sixth scored Larry McKay with the winning run. Pete Schaffer drove in two runs and the Miners added three more on key errors in the second game.
