

Miner 9 Make Mental Errors

U.T.-El Paso's season of baseball mistakes has ended, hopefully.

Andy Cohen's Miners were caught in a rash of mental errors yesterday in dropping a 5-3 decision to Colorado State University at Dudley Field.

The Miners hosted Southern Colorado State today and meet again tomorrow at 2 p.m. in a single game at Dudley. Southern Colorado stopped the University of New Mexico's 17-game winning streak yesterday with a 6-5 win.

TRAILING 5-1 in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Miners' Joe Kuenstler led off with a double. Eloy Alvarado walked and then the pair moved to second and third on a passed ball. Herb Von Hagen hit a grounder to third and Kuenstler was put out in a run-down.

After Kuenstler was tagged, the Rams found Alvarado off of second and he was chased and put out.

Joe Pennies, the Miners fourth batter of the inning, followed with a double to drive in Von Hagen. Tim Peden singled in Pennies, but the inning ended on the next batter. It could have been a big rally.

"WE MADE enough mistakes," Cohen pointed out, "to last us the whole season. I hope that we learned a lot from the game."

Cohen gave a lot of credit for the Rams' win to Colorado State reliever Steve Hastings.

"I thought we were getting a break when the right hander was brought in relief to face Kuenstler (who bats left-handed), but Hastings did a good job of getting them out of a jam."

Hastings was brought into the game in the bottom of the eighth after Mark Miller had singled and Glenn Villarreal doubled to open the frame. Hastings retired the next three batters to end the inning.

U.T.-El Paso is 9-6 on the year.
