

Miner Nine Starts WAC Play Friday

U.T.-El Paso's baseball team is ready for its second season, which starts Friday when the Miners host New Mexico in the opening of Western Athletic Conference play.

The Miners ended the pre-WAC play by splitting a doubleheader with New Mexico Highlands Saturday. Highlands won the first game 7-3 and U.T.-El Paso, behind a pair of circuit blasts by Barry Alburtis, took the second 3-2 in 11 innings.

COACH ANDY Cohen's diamondmen are 15-10 on the year.

Mark Miller is currently the team's batting leader with a .351 average. Eloy Alvarado is hitting .328. Joe Kuenstler tops the team in RBI's with 16.

The Miner mound staff, led by Bob Knox (2-0, 0.00 e.r.a.) and Mike Hilton (1-2, 0.64) has a team earned run average of 2.28.
