

For Miner-ASU Series

Hilton Is Only Certain Starter

U.T.-El Paso's baseball squad went to Phoenix today to ready for a three-game series against Arizona State University tomorrow and Saturday.

Coach Andy Cohen's diamondmen are currently in second place in the Western Athletic Conference with a 2-1 mark. Six-time WAC titlist ASU holds a 3-0 record.

Cohen planned to start either Ray Greggerson or Mike Miller in tomorrow night's single game. Saturday's two-night doubleheader should find Mike Hilton pitching the afternoon contest and either Mike Kruta or Dave Waide in the series finale.

GREGGERSON, a sophomore, has a 3-1 season mark. He has completed two games in seven outings and has compiled an earned run average of 3.07. Miller, a freshman from Eastwood High School, has developed from a prep catcher to a fine college pitcher as shown by his 3-0 record and 2.19 ERA.

Hilton, a freshman lefty, has given up only three earned runs in 34 innings, but has a record of 1-2. He has fanned 30 batters.

Kruta has started four games for the Miners and has a 0-1 record and a 2.63 ERA. Waide is 1-2 and has given up 3.12 earned runs per nine innings.

ASU IS expected to counter with Ed Bane (7-1), Jim Otten (6-1) and Jim Umbarger (2-1).

"Our pitchers are going to have to work a little bit harder," remarked Cohen in responding to ASU's team batting average of .318.

"We are about as ready as we will ever be. The men have worked hard this week and have the determination and confidence that they can beat anybody in the conference."

The Miners support a 17-11 overall record while Arizona State, currently ranked No. 2 in the nation, has a 33-5 mark.
