

Juarez Hosts Ladies', Men's Golf Tournaments

By DERRY EADS

Juarez Country Club is playing host to two big golf tournaments in four days next week.

The third annual International Ladies Golf Tournament is scheduled for next Thursday and Friday (April 26-27) and the Banco de Juarez follows on Saturday and Sunday. Both tournaments will be 36 holes of medal play except that the Banco de Juarez is two man best ball competition and the ladies are having individual play.

There will be four flights for the ladies — 0-12 handicap for the first flight, 13-20 for the second, 21-28 for the third and 29 and over for the fourth flight. An 80 per cent handicap for all flights is being applied. Entry deadline has been set for 6 p.m. next Tuesday.

"WE ARE expecting ladies from 12 different golf clubs from around the southwest," remarked Juarez CC tournament chairman Alex Gonzalez.

"I hope to keep this tournament growing each year," he added. "Eventually I hope to pull the Mexican Women's Amateur Open to Juarez."

Sammy Lujan and Ralph Barron are expected to defend their Banco de Juarez two-man team title against a field of around 80 teams.

Gonzalez felt that main competition would come from golfers like Gene Fisher, Frank Redman and Dennis Healy of El Paso plus Jorge de Herrera of Juarez.

THERE ARE five flights for the men — 0-5 for championship, 6-10 for A, 11-15 for B, 16-20 for C and 21-36 for D.

Gonzalez also announced the rest of the club's major tournaments for the year: Fourth annual Carta Blanca on May 26-27, Southwestern Amateur Open on June 13-16, Seventh annual Coca-Cola Tournament June 30-July 1, 16th annual Campestre Juarez Invitational Aug. 3-5 and the Third annual International Pro-Am Sept. 6-9.

He hopes that while in office he can put in a few changes in the golf course.

"I WOULD like to add a number of bunkers to the course," Gonzalez remarked. "I hope that we can bring the two lakes together on No. 7. I think that if we put a couple of traps along the left hand corner of No. 12, it would help the long hitter a bit. If he hits a good shot his ball will roll into the trap and not out of bounds."

Good Talent Found

Although Arizona State University swept a three game baseball series over U.T.-El Paso last weekend, we heard reports that the Miners did come out ahead on a free-for-all.

It was during that 25-3 loss that tempers began to flare. According to reports, an Arizona State runner tried to run over 6-4, 215 pound Miner catcher Tim Peden instead of sliding. He was out.

THE SAME runner tried it again a couple of innings later, but Peden was ready and made a not-so delicate tag on the ASU player. Both benches empties and some fighting took place.

"It was a pretty good fight for a few minutes," commented Miner coach Andy Cohen. The ageless Miner mentor, who played professional baseball under the likes of fiery John McGraw of the New York Giants back in the 1920's, remarked that he went out to the field just "to supervise breaking up the fight."

The Miners, 17-14 for the season and 2-4 in Western Athletic Conference play, host the University of Arizona in a three game WAC set Friday in a single game at 2 p.m. and a doubleheader Saturday at 1 p.m. All of the games will be played at Dudley Field.
