

Miners Lose 3 At Tucson, Play ASU This Week

U.T. El Paso's baseball Miners prepared for a double header with New Mexico State on the Aggie campus tomorrow and looked toward resumption of Western Athletic Conference competition this weekend.

The Miners play Arizona State in a single game at 1 p.m., Friday at Dudley Field and face the Sun Devils in a twinbill at 1 p.m., Saturday.

SANDWICHED IN between is an exhibition with the El Paso Diablos at 7 p.m., Wednesday, at Dudley Field.

Although there were few bright spots in the Miners' series against the WAC champion Arizona Wildcats in Tucson last week, coach Andy Cohen hoped for better fortune this week against the strong Arizona Staters.

The Miners lost to the Wildcats 23-4, 11-4 and 20-1.

CATCHER JOE Dehn of the iners in three games had six hits in 10 tims at bat and had two runs batted in. First baseman Terry Dillingham went four four nine in the series.

Pitcher Ron Wrobel had a good staet for the Miners in a Saturday game and held the Cats to one run in two innings before a blister on his pitching hand forced him to leave the mound.
