

Miners Win—

Bombard's Clutch Work Is Supreme

Marc Bombard sure makes things exciting — much to the dismay of Miner baseball coach Andy Cohen's ulcers.

Bombard, who completed his fifth game of the season, yesterday at Dudley Field, was in trouble in just about every other inning. He worked out of every tight situation except for the second inning when Eastern New Mexico scored three of its five runs in a 7-5 decision.

"BOY I TELL you, he sure pitched himself out of some kind of jams," said Cohen, "Bombard really stuck with it and bore down to do a fine job."

Cohen had praise for the hitting of Bob Prokopowicz, Gary Molberg and Bobby Morales, who all tagged key hits as U.T.-El Paso overcame a 4-0 deficit to win.

Molberg and Prokopowicz highlighted a four-run sixth which put the Miners ahead to stay. Molberg put the Miners out in front 5-4 with a two-run single and Prokopowicz added a double to knock in the sixth and seventh runs.
