PETE COSGROVE and I have received mail from Andy Cohen since Andy received his appointment as manager of the Indianapolis club in the American Association and mention of it was made here—the letters coming from Panama where he's now managing some other baseball matters . . . Andy says: "The Indianapolis job came out of a clear sky. I had just resigned at New Orleans. So I guess it was a break" . . . Observers at Bemidji are looking upon St. John's as the favorite in the Paul Bunyan holiday tournament there Friday and Saturday . . . The other entries are Augsburg, Luther of Decorah and Bemidji's TC Beavers . . . The Johnnies play Luther in the opening game Friday at 7:30 p.m. . . . Augsburg won it last year . . . In his senior year at Verndale High Russ Simonson of TC paced his team to an undefeated season before Crosby-Ironton came along and upset the applecart in the District 24 tournament . . . Roger Adair, a star as a sophomore with the Brainerd Warriors when they won the state championship, is doing well with the Concordia Cobbers at Moorhead . . .
