Andy Cohen Ends Baseball Career

3. DENVER, COLO., Nov. 11 (AP).
—Andy Cohen is hanging up his spikes for keeps—he says.

The one-time New York Giants second baseman, who managed the Denver Bears in the American Association last season, said today he's going to sell beer.

Cohen said he will be a distributor in El Paso, Tex., where his brother, Syd, also is employed by the same firm.

Cohen, 53, is an alumnus of University of Alabama. The twisting trials of baseball took him to Waco, Tex., and Buffalo, then to New York as an infielder for John McGraw.
