

SHORT WAVES

The New York Yankees and Denver Bears of the American Association ended their working agreement yesterday. The Bears, in turn, fired ANDY COHEN, manager of the fourth-place team. . . .

Pitcher JOHNNY ANTONELLI threw his annual champagne and Antonelli liverwurst party for the San Francisco Giants, who still need a victory to clinch third place after taking a 10-3 shellacking from the Chicago Cubs . . . DON FUELL is going back to Auburn and apparently giving up college football. He decided not to enroll at Nebraska. The N.C.A.A. hasn't determined his status that was placed in doubt in the Auburn recruiting hassle. . . .

Emily's Pride won the $16,028 Hanover Shoe filly stake at the Lexington Trots, winning the third heat from Sandalwood. . . .

ROGELIO ALVAREZ of Havana edged BOB GIALLOMBARDO of Montreal in voting for the International League's "Rookie of the Year." GENE OLIVER of Rochester was third.

The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League signed a working agreement with the Kansas City Athletics, after clipping ties with the Chicago Cubs. . . . The Baltimore Orioles showed a drop of over 200,000 in home attendance, drawing their lowest total since major league ball returned to Baltimore, 829,991.

If LAMAR (POSS) LEE, freshman end from Live Oak, Fla., doesn't get a special kicking shoe in time for the game, the Arkansas State football player will kick barefooted against Louisiana Tech Saturday, his coach says.

The Cleveland Browns traded end JIM GIBBONS to Detroit and obtained punter DICK DESCHAIINE from Green Bay. The Pittsburgh Steelers gave two future draft choices to Los Angeles for end BILLY RAY SMITH and halfback JIMMY ORR.