

Miners can't get hits

UTEP had little trouble getting on base, but after the Miners reached base, they stayed there. And that is the story in a nut shell, of last night's twin bill loss to Denver.

Denver and the Miners meet at Dudley Field at 8 tonight in another game, with one more contest slated tomorrow night at the same time and place.

"We left 11 men on in the second game. We just couldn't hit with men on. The pitching wasn't that bad, although it was spasmodic," Coach Andy Cohen said following the 4-0 and 3-1 double loss by the Miners.

Sam Paves and Jeff Tarter both slugged home runs for Denver in the second game, but the Miners outhit Denver, 10-6. "We didn't hit with men on and that's the story of both games," Cohen said.
