

Pitching, bats good, Miners have shutouts

When Andy Cohen goes to his bench these days, it isn't in desperation.

The U.T.-El Paso baseball coach substituted freely against Western New Mexico in Silver City after achieving big leads. Although the Miners blasted out 30 hits in clubbing WNM 9-0 and 18-0 yesterday, Orlando Cordova was the only player to get as many as five hits.

Cordova also drove in seven runs in the doubleheader.

JIM BRADFORD'S seventh inning grand slam homer was the highlight of UTEP's opening game win.

Tom Cartier and Bob Alsup each hurled three-hit shutouts for the Miners in achieving their first mound decisions of the season.

UTEP, now 18-8, faces Southern Colorado Thursday at 1 p.m. at Cruz Blanco in Juarez. The two teams meet in a doubleheader Friday at noon at the same site.
