

Andy Cohen Will Speak At Kiwanis

Andy Cohen will be featured speaker at the Friday noon meeting of the Mt. Franklin Kiwanis Club. Honored guests will be 32 Little League ball players from El Paso. Coach Juan Gonzales and six of his coaches will be at the annual event.

Cohen played shortstop for the National League New York Giants under Manager John McGraw.

Cohen coached with the Philadelphia Phillies after his playing days. He has been coach of the U.T. El Paso Miners for eight years and until recently was the first base coach of the El Paso Sun Kings. He is past commander of the American Legion. he will speak on the "Democracy of Baseball."