

Three More In Contest For UF Title

Three more entries have been received in the Miss United Way contest; an annual search by the United Fund for a young miss to represent the UF during its upcoming campaign.

Bonnie Alene Stoepel with American Airlines, Sandy Stone with C. H. Leavell and Co. and Mary Elizabeth Flores with Southwest National Bank have submitted their entry forms along with a black and white picture to United Fund office.

To date, five entries have registered for the contest to be held August 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the Festival Theater on Montana. Charlie Tupper, chairman for the contest, said, "deadline for entry in this contest is August 16. Those planning on representing their company in this annual event should mail their applications to Mrs. Ferguson at the UF office."

Judges for the contest will be

Miss Marjorie Graham of Radford School for Girls, Mrs. Doris Thompson of Buck Rogers Travel Service, John Conboye of KTSM, Marlin Haines of KROD and Fred Witt of KELP. MC for the evening will be Jack Rye of KTSM.

Serving on the committee with Charlie Tupper are Mrs. Milton Leech, Andy Cohen and D. B. Parker. First, second and third prizes will be presented the three winners, along with the traveling trophy and a pearl tiara for winner of place one.

Further information may be had by calling the UF office.

Pearls are sold by weight known as 'grains'. Four grains equal one carat. A strand of matched pearls is costly because it may take as long as several years to complete a perfectly matched necklace.
